The Regional Director
Department of Education Regional Office

Dear Sir/Madame:

Greetings!

CEREBRO is a government-registered institution that provides education-related programs to a wide-range of clientele for their personal and professional growth.

In line with this goal, we will be hosting the 2ND NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES STUDENTS AND TEACHERS with the theme "Promoting Inclusion Towards Nation-Building and Social Empowerment" at the ANGELS' HILLS FOUNDATION, INC., Arnoldus Road, Maitim II East, Tagaytay City on March 30-31, 2019, wherein several individual and group competitions in relevant fields will be held in line with the following objectives:

- to provide opportunities for the exchange of intellectual ideas among senior high school students taking up the same strand;
- to appreciate the humanities as an area that deals with human expression; and
- to highlight the importance of the social sciences amid today's challenging culture.

During the same event, the NETWORK OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES TEACHERS (HUMSS Net) will also meet for a professional development session and to accept new registrations for membership.

A conference fee of PHP 2,750.00 (non-members) / PHP 2,250 (members with HUMSSNet ID cards) will be charged from every participant to cover the costs for accommodation, food (1st day: lunch, afternoon snacks & dinner; 2nd day: breakfast & morning snacks), seminar materials, speakers' honoraria, awards, and other logistical requirements. For every 10 participants that a school will send, one (1) additional slot will be given to them for free.

Interested participants are requested to pre-enlist online at <http://bit.ly/humss2019>, and follow the instructions written on the official registration form (please refer to the attached pages) on or before March 23, 2019 to ensure the availability of slots. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the project director at (0917) 886-5402. You may also send us a message via-email at cerebrocavite@gmail.com.

We are hoping for your support by providing us with a DepEd advisory for this event. Attached herewith are the program of activities and mechanics for the different competitions.

Thank you!

Respectfully yours,

PROF. JONALD JUSTINE U. ITUGOT
Project Director

CONTEST MECHANICS

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR THE DIFFERENT COMPETITIONS

- The different competitions during the National Conference are open for all interested Senior High School students (grade 11 and 12) who are taking up the Humanities and Social Sciences (HUMSS) strand.
- Participants in the individual competitions may also join in the group competition.
- The replacement of participants' names indicated in the official registration form will be allowed if the secretariat will be informed about the changes during the on-site registration.
- The decision of the judges is final and unappealable.

A. HUMSS PAUTAKAN (QUIZ BEE)

- This competition aims to test the awareness of Humanities and Social Sciences (HUMSS) students about general information and current events.
- Only two participants per school may join the quiz bee, and each pair will be participating as one team.
- There will be three rounds of the quiz bee, with each round having a set of 10 questions.
- Every correct answer will give the team corresponding points depending on the current round. (Easy = 1 point; Average = 3 points; Difficult = 5 points)
- Should there be a need to adjudicate the answers of different teams, a panel of judges will be deciding on the matter.
- The team with the highest number of points at the end of the third round will be declared as the winner. If there are multiple teams garnering the same highest score, a clincher round with five questions (1 point per correct answer) will be held.
