- Proclamation No. 759 s. 1996 - Declaring every fourth week of March as the Protection and Gender-Fair Treatment of the Girl Child Week. This underscores the need to provide every girl who is below 18 years of age with equal opportunities and adequate protection to prepare her for role in community development.
- Proclamation No. 744 s. 2004 – Declaring the last Monday of March of every year as Women with Disabilities Day to emphasize the inclusion of women with disabilities within the society who deserve equal rights in the field of law and in all aspects of human endeavor.

3. NWMC Theme and Objectives

3.1. Campaign Theme

The NWMC theme for the period 2017-2022 is “We Make Change Work for Women,” highlighting the empowerment of women as active contributors to and claimholders of development. This pursuit of development is also anchored on the government’s commitment of “malasakit, pagbabago, at patuloy na pag-unlad”. This can be made possible by empowering women – enabling them to meaningfully engage with other development stakeholders, and by fully implementing the Magna Carta of Women (MCW).

3.2. Elements of the Theme

We or WE also stands for Women’s Empowerment – empowering women enables them to confidently and meaningfully engage with appropriate institutions to ensure that they contribute to and benefit from development and changes. Thus, women’s empowerment will make the change that we are espousing or any development effort responsive of women’s concerns.

Make Change Work = MCW = Magna Carta of Women – making change work for women necessitates strengthening the implementation of the Magna Carta of Women (MCW) at all levels. It means putting in place functional mechanisms as well as implementing and making known to citizens, programs and services that address strategic gender needs of women.

Change – also means Compassionate and Harmonized Actions and Networks for Gender Equality.

We/us or kami/tayo in Filipino – who is going to pave the way for an enabling environment for women to be empowered? Who is going to ensure that the MCW is implemented at all levels? Who is going to make change work for women? It all of us, in our various capacities whether as government officials and employees, members of the private sector, the academe, non-government organizations, or as private individuals can be partners for a change that is gender-responsive. It emphasizes our collective effort, collaboration and participation to ensure that women will not be left behind in the pursuit of change.

3.3. Objectives

All NWMC activities should contribute to achieving any the following objectives:

- inform and engage women as stakeholders of government programs and services – to promote citizen-centric governance and make “change” a conscious effort to know, understand, and provide what ALL citizens need;
- create and facilitate platforms to discuss good practices, gaps, challenges, and commitments in pursuing gender and development (GAD) – to strengthen implementation of the MCW; and
- inspire and empower women and girls to be agents of change – to contribute in promoting gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls.

3.4. NWMC Focus for 2019

The 2019 NWMC shall focus on strengthening efforts to improve and track the progress of implementation of the Magna Carta of Women (MCW), and other relevant laws and commitments to the international community such as the Convention on the Elimination of All forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), the Beijing Platform for Action (BPfA), and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Government instrumentalities primarily mandated to work in the areas of social protection systems, access to public services, and sustainable infrastructure can also be guided by the International Women’s Day theme and focus for 2019 – “Think equal, build smart, innovate for change,” by finding innovative ways to advance gender equality and empowerment of women in these sectors (<http://bit.ly/UN2019IWD>).

- GERL Toolkit. The GERL Assessment Tool aims to measure the extent of gender-responsiveness of the LGUs, both provincial and city/municipal levels, in terms of its capacities as an organization, and its delivery of basic services and facilities. Specifically, the objectives of the GERL Assessment Tool are the following: (1) gather data and information on the level of LGUs' GAD mainstreaming efforts and practices; (2) serve as a monitoring and evaluation tool to measure the extent of gender responsiveness of the LGU as an organization and in the delivery of basic services and facilities; and (3) identify the gaps and corresponding strategies to achieve gender responsive local governance.

GAD LLHs are meant for sharing and replicating good practices, ultimately giving other LGUs the opportunity to think outside the box when implementing GAD initiatives. LGUs seeking to imbibe GAD innovations can learn from the GAD LLHs and get inspiration on how to infuse GAD in local governance and public service. This year, PCW shall award seven (7) LGUs to join the roster of PCW's certified GAD LLHs.

LGUs that wish to share their innovative GAD initiatives are encouraged to await the call for profiling for the next batch of LLH which shall be announced through PCW's website and social media accounts. - Compendium of GEWE indicators. The Compendium presents a menu of indicators to aid development stakeholders in monitoring and evaluating the results of the interventions and investments undertaken towards the realization of GEWE in various sectoral and thematic areas of concern in the Philippines.
