Sir:

In recognition to the invaluable contribution of the teachers who continue to inspire and dedicate their time and effort in guiding the Filipino Youth, the Philippine Postal Corporation is celebrating its' 7th year of the "Salamat Po, Teacher " Letter Writing Contest to students from kindergarten to Grade 12.

The program also aims to improve the literacy skills of the students and provide them the opportunity to convey their appreciation of the contributions of teachers through letter writing which shall be sent via post office. Further, the activity also entitles them a chance to win cash prizes during the Grand Raffle Draw.

Relative to this, may we request authority to introduce the program in public and private schools in Region I through the schools divisions.

Attach is a copy of the Memorandum of Undersecretary Tonisito M.C. Umali, Esq, Department of Education dated 19 August 2019 and the Program Mechanics, for your reference.

We look forward to a fruitful partnership in this endeavor.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

ATTY. LORI ANN D. ATAL

The Program is open to all elementary and high school students from private and public schools nationwide. The duration of the program will be from September 2019 to March 2020.

To encourage the participation of the students and advance PHLPost's advocacy, homeroom or subject area teachers may integrate letter writing during homeroom period or in applicable subject area/s and make said activity as a project for the students. The learners may then opt to drop their letters to the mailbox provided by PHLPost.

Enclosed in this Memorandum are the different projects and their respective guidelines and mechanics integrated in the said program for your reference.

For more information, you may contact Ms. Bea Gervacio of PHLPost at telephone numbers (02) 524-8771 or 527-9605.

Thank you very much.
