We truly hope to work with the Department of Education in the service of the Filipino teacher by offering alternative options to professional training and development.

For inquiries, we may be reached by email cpdonlineseminars@gmail.com, directly through our website www.cpdonline seminars.com or by mobile phone 09983255665.

I represent a small organization with a big vision to serve teachers directly by giving them world class quality continuing education opportunities at the fraction of the cost. It is for this reason that I write. We have limited funds for marketing purposes and it would be of tremendous help if more teachers are made aware of this learning opportunity.

I am looking forward to your favorable response.
